

Achievements for July 2026

Academic Achievements

Examinations and Academic Assessment

Academic and Scholarly Activities

Administrative Development

Media and Documentation

Achievements of the College of Islamic Studies - July 2026

❖ Academic Achievements

- All lectures were conducted regularly in accordance with the approved study plan, and make-up lectures were completed.
- The first half of the first semester was successfully completed.
- Daily follow-up was carried out to monitor the progress of lectures and ensure their regularity.

❖ Examinations and Academic Assessment

- Midterm examination schedules were prepared, reviewed, approved, and published.
- The uploading and review of examinations through the electronic portal were completed.
- The submission of assignments and summaries was monitored in accordance with the approved plan.

❖ Academic and Scholarly Activities

- Academic seminars and research discussions were organized and followed up across the various departments of the College.
- Media reports covering seminars and academic activities were followed up and published.

❖ Administrative Development

- The work of the departments was monitored on a daily basis, with observations and inquiries addressed promptly.
- Academic and administrative circulars and instructions were published, and their implementation was followed up.
- Technical and administrative support was provided to faculty members, in coordination with the Technology Team to address technical issues.
- New faculty members were welcomed, and the procedures for completing their joining and onboarding processes were finalized.

❖ Media and Documentation

- Daily and monthly reports were prepared, and the College's achievements were documented.
- News and academic events were published, and the College's achievements were presented in both Arabic and English.

July concluded with the successful completion of the first half of the first semester and the finalization of all preparations for the midterm examinations, amid academic and administrative stability, by the grace of Allah Almighty. This was made possible through the dedicated efforts of the College Deanship, department heads, faculty members, and administrative staff.