Faculty of Sharia and Law

First Semester Achievements Report – 2026

Appointments

- Department of Islamic Jurisprudence (Fiqh) and Fundamentals of Jurisprudence (Usul al-Fiqh): Appointed 3 faculty members.
- Department of Judicial Studies and Sharia-based Governance (Siyasah Shar'iyyah): Appointed 1 faculty member.
- Department of Personal Status and Family Law: Appointed 1 faculty member.

Leadership & Faculty Changes

- Resignations: Accepted the resignation of Dr. Mohammed Al-Shaqaldi, Head of the Department of Judicial Studies and Sharia-based Governance, along with a number of faculty members.
- New Appointments: Appointed Dr. Omar Jabba Ji as the new Head of the Department of Judicial Studies and Sharia-based Governance.
- Promotions: Promoted several faculty members.

Departmental Meetings

- Department of Law: Convened 1 meeting.
- Department of Islamic Jurisprudence and Fundamentals of Jurisprudence: Convened 2 meetings.
- Department of Judicial Studies and Sharia-based Governance: Convened 1 meeting.
- Department of Personal Status and Family Law: Convened 2 meetings.

Academic Programs Expansion

- Ph.D. Program: Launched the Ph.D. program in Personal Status and Family Law (Self-Funded track).
- Master’s Program: Launched the Master’s program in Litigation and Arbitration (Self-Funded track).

Academic Operations & Quality Assurance

- Class Schedules: Prepared and published the class schedules for the first semester across 4 departments.
- Course Specifications: Followed up on, finalized, and completed all course specifications and academic assignments.
- Examinations: Reviewed, verified, and officially submitted the final examination papers.

Recognition & Awards

- Student Recognition: Issued certificates of appreciation for exemplary students.
- Faculty Recognition: Issued certificates of appreciation for faculty members who taught courses during the first semester.